

Laudato Si Reflection

I pray that every day is Earth Day. The earth cries out for justice, the least among us cry out, they have been treating unjustly in the exploitation of resources for others benefit. We must live within the margins our Earth can provide, not on tomorrow's seed, soil, air and water.

I'm sharing this image of my granddaughter, taken in 2017, with the prayer that we profoundly See, Judge, and Act to save and nourish the Earth our children and grandchildren will inherit. – posted by L. Maddaford, Canada, 2021

When the last tree is cut,
the last fish is caught,
and the last river is polluted;
when to breathe the air is sickening, you will realize, too late,
that wealth is not in bank accounts and that you can't eat money.

Cree Indian Prophecy