“THAT WE MAY TAKE GOOD CARE OF CREATION –A GIFT FREELY GIVEN– CULTIVATING AND PROTECTING IT FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

(LAUDATO SI- Pope Francis.)

Pope Francis’s words on the sacredness of creation couldn’t be clearer: “The universe as a whole, in all its manifold relationships, shows forth the inexhaustible riches of God,” he writes. As he stresses the message of each creature in the harmony of creation, Pope Francis quotes John Paul II’s August 2000 Catechesis: “We can say that ‘alongside revelation properly so-called, contained in sacred Scripture, there is a divine manifestation in the blaze of the sun and the fall of night.’” “Paying attention to this manifestation, we learn to see ourselves in relation to all other creatures,” Pope Francis writes. “I express myself in expressing the world; in my effort to decipher the sacredness of the world, I explore my own.”

Alas, the natural world isn’t only sacred, we are sacred. And we are part of nature ourselves.

We the Adorers of the Blood of Christ As prophets of our time, rooted in the Gospel values we strive for the total, integral development of humanity by promoting, preserving and protecting life at all levels. We keenly listen to the whispering cries in the darkest valleys and feeble voice and gestures of those in pain.

Voice from our foundress: “Remember that God has called you to this holy institute to become a saint and to sanctify other souls which cost Jesus, Our Crucified Spouse Blood”. (St.Maria De Mattias, letter # 659) we are all connected and when my poor brother or sister is starving or naked how can I eat and clothe myself. I share an equal responsibility . as Yahweh ask me where is your brother?>today we have started food bank, clothe bank and energy homes to empower human dignity.

We choose to protect and promote the sacredness of life for which the precious blood of Christ was shed to free humankind from the slavery of sin and we uphold the dignity of life induce reconciliation to god and each other and with the whole of the cosmos an effort to restore the harmony

We Adorers feel a great sense of responsibility to constantly endeavor to preserve and protect God's creation. As a adorers I am bound to carry out the task as planned in the action plan for "Laudato Si "

"Let's be ambassadors for change in our way of thinking, Living and giving. "
